

The Fruit is Sweet

M. Ryan Taylor

The fruit is sweet. — Come taste and see — and glo - ri - fy the
 The fruit is sweet. — Come en - ter in — and make your path - way
 The fruit is sweet, — Come let us rise — and go of one ac -
 The love of God — is — ma - ni - fest — in fruit so white and

4

Lamb, — For Priest-hood keys of faith and love are now re - stored to straight; Through wa - ter fol - low Christ our Lord, the Keep - er of the cord — To stand and serve on ho - ly ground, the moun-tain of the fair; — The more we feast up - on His gifts the more we want to man. Come hear His voice, come hear His word through pro - phets called a - gate. All pure and bright, come feel the hands of faith laid on your Lord. Come, be en - dowed with strength and faith. Come, cove - nant to be share; So bless the child, an - noint the sick, go spread His word a - gain, A - pos - tles sent to tes - ti - fy and bless the race of men.

7

11

 head; Ac - cept the Ho - ly Spi - rit's gift and by his fire be led.
 true. — Come en - ter in and seal your-selves to loved ones old and new.
 broad, And praise the Lamb for send - ing us the Priest-hood of our God.